

<https://www.amazon.com/Elliott-Anthology-Dr-Bob-Zybach/dp/1732127670>

This is a collection of articles published from 2012 through 2024 regarding the Elliott State Forest in Douglas County, Oregon. Topics include fire history, forest management, wildlife, recreation, Endangered Species Act (ESA), HCPs, spotted owls, marbled murrelets, and coho. Institutions referenced include the State Land Board, Department of State Lands, Oregon State University, and Southwest Oregon Community College. Organizations include Oregon Websites and Watersheds Project, Inc. (ORWW), Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Indians (CTCLUSI), and NW Maps Co. Individuals profiled include Jerry Phillips, Wayne Giesy, David Gould, Tasha Livingstone Davison, McKenzie Peters, and Mike Newton.